Types

Planning: Calendars allow us to plan ahead and schedule appointments, meetings, events, and other important activities. By keeping track of our schedule, we can avoid double booking and ensure that we have enough time to complete all of our tasks.

Time management: Calendars help us manage our time more efficiently by providing a visual representation of our schedule. We can use them to identify areas where we have free time and plan how to use that time effectively.

Reminders: Calendars can be used to set reminders for important dates, such as birthdays, anniversaries, and deadlines. This helps us stay on top of our responsibilities and ensures that we don't forget anything important.

Goal setting: Calendars can be used to set goals and track progress towards those goals. By breaking down larger goals into smaller, more manageable tasks, we can make progress towards achieving our objectives.
